

Our Dead.

SOMERS.—Isie D. Somers, wife of Lewis O. Somers, was born in Columbiana Co., Ohio, August 1, 1875, aged 20 years, 2 months, and 13 days. She was laid to rest, in the North Georgetown Cemetery. Funeral services were conducted in the Brethren church. The writer, assisted by Rev. E. E. Haskins, of Johnstown, Pa. May God bless the mourning friends. J. L. KIMMEL.

VANDERREE.—Johnnie William, son of brother J. J. and sister Katie J. Vanderree of Cornell, Ill., after a short illness of only four days, departed to the better land on the 8th day of October, 1895, at the age of 1 year and 27 days. Another flower that budded on earth to bloom in heaven.

"The mother gave in tears and pain,
The flower she did most love;
She knew she would find it once again
In the fields of light above.

O not in cruelty, not in wrath,
The Reaper came that day;
'Twas an angel visited the green earth,
And took the flower away."

LOUIS S. BAUMAN.

HINES.—Anna Hines was born Oct. 16, 1804, died Oct. 18, 1895, aged 91 years and 2 day. The deceased was born in Bedford Co., Pa., near Roaring Spring. At the age of 22 years, she came to Hocking Co., Ohio, with her parents, where she lived ever since. At the age of 39 years, she was united in the bonds of holy matrimony, to Philip Jacob Kistler. To this union 2 sons were born, both of whom are living. Her husband preceded her to the spirit world 17 years ago. She has left to mourn, 2 sons, 5 grand children and 3 great-grand-children. At the age of 46 years she joined the German Baptist church of which she has lived a consistent member ever since. Large concourse. Funeral services conducted by N. M. PALMER, Logan, Ohio.

HUTCHESON.—Gladys Marie, daughter of George and Susie Hutcheson, died Aug. 8, 1895, aged 1 year, 1 month, and 27 days. A precious bud transplanted from earth to heaven. Suffer little children to come unto me, says Jesus, for of such is the kingdom of heaven. May the "God of all grace" enable the parents to say, The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord. Job 1: 21. We shall go to her, but she shall not return to us. II Sam. 12: 23.

WILT.—In the Clifton Mills congregation, Oct. 19, 1895, our beloved sister Belle Wilt, the beloved wife of brother S. W. Wilt. In the death of sister Wilt, the church loses a practice member, and the community one of its best citizens. Sister Wilt was long a sufferer from cancer the breast, which at last destroyed the vitals of life. A few days before her death, she was anointed with oil in the name of the Lord. The Lord gave her strength according to her desire, and she was privileged to enjoy the last communion which was on the 5th inst. Though very weak and hardly able to talk she said she was reconciled and willing to go. She selected the scripture to be read, II Cor. 5. The hymns was from the Dunkard Hymnal. Funeral by the writer. Text II Kings 1st verse.

J. W. FITZGERALD.

EARL.—William Heron was born Nov. 15, 1894, died Sept. 19, 1895. Aged 10 months and 4 days. "This darling was the youngest child of brother and sister W. Heron. While his mother was busy washing on Wednesday, Sept. 17, her darling made an effort to walk to the machine, reaching it he fell and pulled out the stopper, when the water gushed out on him, the apparel was at once removed, only to find that the child had been severely burned. Assistance was at once called and nothing left undone to relieve the little sufferer, but all that medical skill did, could not save our little friend. On Thursday evening the pale messenger came and bore him home to him, in whose presence death can have no power, but life and peace shall ever be enjoyed. A more sorrowful family we were never called to visit, and in this hour of sorrow we could invite our dear brother, sister and 2 daughters to trust their darling in the care of him who said, "Suffer the little children to come unto me," and be consoled by the words, "for of such is the kingdom of heaven." Many sorrowing friends were present at the funeral which was preached by the writer, assisted by Elder D. O. Brumbaugh.

Little Earl has left us,
But is in the care
Of him who has died,
That life he might share.

In his word, is the promise
If we serve him while here,
We will meet little Earl,
In the home over there.

And this privilege we share,
Through the death of the Son,
Who died that God's children
And he might be one.

Lay not up treasures on earth.

MILLER.—Catherine Miller, youngest daughter of brother and sister Henry Miller, of Dunlaps, Ind., died Sunday evening, Oct. 13, at the age of 22 years, 1 month and 15 days. She united with the Brethren church five years ago, in a series of meetings held by Rev. J. Allen Miller, at Elkhart, Ind. She lived a consistent Christian life until death removed her from our midst. The hand of affliction made itself manifest to her several months ago. She went to Denver Colorado, in hope of finding relief in a different climate, but finding no relief she returned to her home at Dunlaps, Ind., being at home two weeks before death. Katie was our first vice president for our King's Children Society at Dunlaps, which office she filled with honor. We will miss her greatly as she was a grand and noble worker in the Master's cause. She had everything arranged for her funeral, even selecting her own text, which was from Rev. 14: 13. Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord, from henceforth; yea, saith the spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them. She was united in marriage to Charles F. Myers, on Sept. 4, 1895, at Denver, Col. Katie will be sadly missed in the home, in the church and in the community in which she lived. A large concourse of friends followed her to her last resting place. Funeral conducted by writer and Rev. Reese, of the Evangelical church, her husband being a member of that church. May God bless and comfort the family is my prayer. A. R. BEMENDERFER.

MARR.—James T. departed this life Sept. 12, '95. The deceased was born June 30, 1867. When a child he took a severe sickness from which he partially recovered, but at nearly eleven years he lost full control of his mind, which he was never privileged again to enjoy. After a failing of strength for several days, the dark messenger came to relieve him of his suffering. He leaves an aged father, mother, four sisters and two brothers, who did all they could to make his stay with them pleasant, to mourn his departure whom we hope will find comfort in the words of Abraham when he said, "Shall not the judge of all the earth do right." The writer tried to preach the funeral. Assisted by Elder D. O. Brumbaugh, Job. 14: 1, 2. G. J. WOLTERS.

HAUGER.—Near Berlin, Pa., October 6, 1895, Leora Grace Hauger, infant daughter of brother and sister Silas Hauger, aged 16 days. "The streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in the streets thereof." Services conducted by JOHN H. KNEPPER.
